

TENNESSEE PLAYCATION

THE TOY CATALOG
THAT TAKES YOU PLACES

DEAR GROWN-UPS,

OK, OK, THIS MAY LOOK JUST LIKE ANOTHER TOY CATALOG. BUT WE PROMISE, IT'S MORE THAN THAT.

It's no secret: kids love getting toys for the holidays. But there are times you want to give them a gift that will keep their attention longer than 10 minutes. Heck, maybe even something that could last a lifetime. Like, say, the memories made on a family trip to Tennessee.

Well, this lets you do both.

So, think of it more as a “dream it up” catalog. A “get their imaginations racing as fast as they run away from a plate of broccoli” catalog. A toy catalog that can actually take you places.

Let the kids go wild marking their favorite toys, then use that to plan your family vacation. After all, every toy in here represents a Tennessee destination we know kids love. (And we have the data to prove it, but more on that in a few pages.) Finally, pick the toy (or toys) that best represents your future trip so they have something extra special to open.

Even better, we included wrapping paper. No, really. We did.

We can't wait to welcome you,

TENNESSEE

THE FIRE MUSEUM OF MEMPHIS

If dressing up like a firefighter, sliding down a pole and climbing all over a fire truck sounds amazing, just wait till you have a conversation with Ol' Billy the talking horse.

A LEGO fire truck is the central focus, built from red and white bricks. It has a large black hose and a silver grille. Two minifigures are on board: a girl with blonde hair in a pink shirt and green overalls, and a boy with brown hair in a purple shirt. A small white dog with black spots and a red hat is standing next to the truck. The scene is set on a brick-paved street with a building and trees in the background under a sunset sky.
