HISTORY

HAPPENING

HERE

At the landmark Merchants Exchange, we have our own brand of history. It is alive, dynamic and stirring. It is a Presidential speech, a breakthrough product launch, a unique and stylish wedding that marks a new beginning. It is the bold vision of business titans, human rights icons and entertainment legends, all of whom have passed through our doors to make history of their own in the Julia Morgan Ballroom and the Merchants Exchange Club.

Here, history is an experience we share with our clients, a standard of excellence and a gift to the hundreds of remarkable companies, nonprofit organizations and other groups that use our event spaces to celebrate and expand the remarkable work they do each and every day.

It's history, happening here. We invite you to write your own chapter with us.

BLUE WATER GREEN EVENTS

Hosting an event at the Monterey Bay Aquarium helps protect the ocean. From what we serve, to how you eat, to how we trim the tables, a healthy environment is our core responsibility.

We avoid disposable plastic and rely on suppliers who care about ocean conservation. Our menus include only fresh, local and in-season ingredients and follow our own Seafood Watch guidelines to ensure seafood is sustainably caught or farmed.

And as a nonprofit organization, hosting your experience here can make a difference. Event proceeds support our exhibits, education and conservation research programs that advance our mission to inspire conservation of the ocean.

SAN FRANCISCO FACT SHEET

YOUR QUESTIONS ABOUT SAN FRANCISCO. ANSWERED.

HOW BIG IS SAN FRANCISCO?

Surrounded on three sides by the Pacific Ocean and San Francisco Bay, San Francisco's compact 49 square miles (127 sq. km) crowd the tip of the San Francisco Peninsula. The hub of the Bay Area, San Francisco has a population of 883,963 and welcomes more than 26.1 million annual visitors, conventioners and business travelers.

DOES SAN FRANCISCO EVER HAVE SHORTS-AND-T-SHIRT WEATHER?

San Francisco is blessed with a temperate marine climate and enjoys mild weather year-round. Temperatures seldom rise above 70° F (21° C) or fall below 40° F (5° C). San Francisco weather can change by the hour, so the best things visitors can do are to pack layers and have a light jacket or coat handy for cool evenings.

WHAT PHONE NUMBERS ARE IMPORTANT TO HAVE ON HAND?

 or415-701-2311
 or415-701-2323 (TTY)

City Services numbers connect customers with highly trained customer service representatives ready to help with non-emergency matters, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year.

WHAT'S EXPECTED WHEN IT COMES TO TIPPING/GRATUITIES?

Restaurant service is not included in restaurant checks, although some are adopting this custom. The average tip is 15 – 18 percent of the total check. A standard tip is sometimes included for groups of six or more. A San Francisco health initiative has impacted costs at local restaurants and diners may encounter an additional charge related to this. Taxis' average tip is 15 percent of the fare. Airport and hotel baggage handlers' average tip is $1 per bag, one-way.

WHAT ARE THE TAX RATES?

Sales tax is 8.5 percent. Hotel fees in San Francisco include 14 percent occupancy tax and 1.0625 – 2.25 percent Tourism Improvement District (TID) and Moscone Expansion District (MED) assessment (depending on the location of the property).

CAN MY CLIENTS SMOKE IN PUBLIC PLACES?

In the state of California, it is illegal to smoke tobacco products in any public gathering space including parks, restaurants and bars, stores and office buildings.

WHAT ARE THE RESTRICTIONS ON MARIJUANA USE?

Marijuana remains classified as a Schedule I drug under the federal Controlled Substances Act, and its purchase, possession, distribution or use within California may be unlawful under federal law. Recreational use has been legalized in the state of California; however, there are a number of rules and regulations governing usage. For additional resources, visit sftravel.com and search "marijuana."

WHERE CAN I FIND INFORMATION ON ACCESSIBILITY IN THE CITY?

Contact Access Northern California at accessnca.org, or request a copy of the brochure "San Francisco Access" from the San Francisco Travel Association.

MUNI ACCESSIBLE SERVICES PROGRAM

HOW CAN VISITORS ENSURE THEY HAVE A SAFE EXPERIENCE?

San Francisco is a very walkable, approachable and safe city. While visiting any city, travelers should take a few precautions. Safety tips are available online at sftravel.com.

WHERE DO I FIND MORE VISITOR INFORMATION?

San Francisco Travel has four official Visitor Information Centers. The Moscone Center location at 749 Howard St. is open daily, Monday – Friday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m., and weekends, 9 a.m. – 3 p.m., excepting closures on Sundays, November – April, and Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's days. There are two additional locations: in Macy's Union Square at 170 O'Farrell St. and in Chinatown at 625 Kearny St. A variety of services are available, including multilingual assistance. The California Welcome Center is located on PIER 39 in Building B on Level 2, open 9 a.m. – 7 p.m. daily, except Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Golden Gate Bridge

SIGHTSEEING, SAN FRANCISCO-STYLE

THE FABLED STREETS OF SAN FRANCISCO OFFER MANY EXCITING SIGHTSEEING POSSIBILITIES. WHETHER YOU'RE WORKING ON AN ITINERARY FOR FOODIES, FAMILIES OR ART LOVERS, HERE ARE A FEW IDEAS FOR MEMORABLE EXCURSIONS IN THE CITY BY THE BAY.

A DAY OF ARTS & CULTURE

MORNING

No trip to San Francisco would be complete without a visit to the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA). Visitors will enjoy modern and contemporary artworks, six art-filled terraces, a sculptural staircase and a see-through bridge beneath its famous oculus.

AFTERNOON

Guests can refuel with an artisanal coffee at SFMOMA's café or enjoy Michelin-starred cuisine at In Situ, where the menu is composed of signature dishes by famous chefs from around the world. If time permits, the California Historical Society, Contemporary Jewish Museum and Museum of the African Diaspora are all in close proximity.

EVENING

Programming at Yerba Buena Center for the Arts (YBCA), located opposite SFMOMA, often includes evening performances. Alternately, take in a performance at one of the city's many theaters. The San Francisco War Memorial and Performing Arts Center features opera, symphony classics and ballet. The Orpheum and Golden Gate theaters feature some of the city's biggest theater productions. The Curran is known for its innovative stage works, while the New Conservatory Theatre Company welcomes premieres of dramas, comedies, musicals and original works.

Stairway at SFMOMA

Dungeness Crab

California Academy of Sciences

Union Square

FOODIES FEAST FOR A DAY

MORNING

Jump-start a culinary adventure at the Ferry Building Marketplace. The restored historic structure is home to artisan producers, specialty shops, local food and restaurants. For breakfast, visitors can enjoy fresh baked pastries at Mariposa Baking Company, artisanal coffee at Blue Bottle or the renowned brunch at Boulette's Larder.

AFTERNOON

Foodies can dig deeper into San Francisco's local specialties with the city's array of food tours. Check out one of the tantalizing trips offered by Avital Food Tours, Local Tastes of the City Tours or SF Adventure Tours Beers & Bites to eat around various neighborhoods. Edible Excursions visits several tempting locations in Japantown, including Benkyodo Confections, one of the neighborhood's first businesses. To get a taste of Chinatown's delicacies, try All About Chinatown Walking Tours or Wok Wiz Chinatown Walking Tours. Or, plan a stop at China Live, an all-in-one marketplace and food emporium dedicated to Chinese cuisine.

EVENING

For some nighttime revelry, head to 21st Amendment Brewery, Barrel Head Brewhouse or Anchor Public Taps for an ample variety of craft brews. To sample the hard stuff, Hotaling & Co. on Potrero Hill and Hangar One Vodka headquarters in Alameda are the places to go.

A DAY OF FAMILY FUN

MORNING

Families can start their day in Golden Gate Park at the California Academy of Sciences. This massive, one-of-a-kind institution houses an aquarium, planetarium, natural history museum and four-story tropical rainforest all under one living roof that's covered by 1.7 million native plants. Their Academy Café and The Terrace restaurant feature plenty of kid-friendly options, so lunch can be enjoyed without leaving the museum.

AFTERNOON

For some Disney-style fun, the Presidio features a 40,000-square-foot museum celebrating the life, art and imagination of famed animator Walt Disney. The Walt Disney Family Museum includes a 13-foot model of Disneyland and a "Fantasia"-themed theater that screens Disney classics six days a week. In the late afternoon, families can head to the Exploratorium. Located on Pier 15, this interactive museum blends hands-on activities and thought-provoking exhibits.

EVENING

At PIER 39, families will enjoy watching the popular colony of sea lions and stunning waterfront views at sunset. There are also dozens of shops, restaurants and attractions, including the Aquarium of the Bay. Older kids will love the nearby San Francisco Dungeon with its thrilling drop ride and interactive storytelling.

A ONE-DAY SHOPPING SPREE

MORNING

Union Square is a shopper's paradise and a great place to commence a full day of shopping. It's home to big name stores such as Macy's, Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom, Uniqlo and Bloomingdale's, as well as legendary local stores including Wilkes Bashford and Tourbillon Boutique. Visitors can also enjoy one of the outdoor cafés on Maiden Lane for brunch and people-watching. Or, book a guided luxury shopping excursion with Shop-a-tude Tours, offering both public and customizable private tours.

AFTERNOON

Travelers looking for one-of-a-kind items will love the unique shops and chic boutiques in North Beach. Browse the aisles of City Lights Booksellers and Publishers, founded in 1953. It is a mecca for booklovers all over the world. Visit Schein & Schein a few blocks away on Grant Ave., which is stocked with map collectibles ranging from $5 to $5,000. For unique items made in San Francisco, visit one of San Francisco Travel's official Visitor Information Centers, which offer a variety of unique gifts and souvenirs.

EVENING

With more than 200 stores and restaurants — including luxury retailers such as Kate Spade, Tiffany & Co. and Michael Kors — Westfield San Francisco Centre offers something for everyone. After a full day of shopping, travelers can rest their feet and catch a movie at the theater.

2020's Top Museum Exhibitions

PREDICTING THE PAST

This exhibition by Los Angeles-based artist Stephen Berkman consists of images by the 19th century Jewish immigrant photographer Shimmel Zohar. See large environmental installations and prints that address both Jewish life and the scientific state of understanding more than 100 years ago.

MICE* ITINERARIES

Whether you're planning an incentive trip for a small group of top earners, a mid-sized self-contained meeting or any other type of event, here are a few suggestions to get you inspired. If you don't find what you're looking for here, San Francisco Travel's team can lend their expertise to help you find just the right locations and service providers to give your attendees an unforgettable experience.

* Meetings, Incentives, Conferences and Events

SMALL INCENTIVE GROUP

Bring together top teams from around the world with ease thanks to SFO's expanded international airlift.

WHERE TO STAY:

Celebrate your team's success with a luxurious getaway. Reward incentive winners with a stay in upscale Nob Hill, a neighborhood rich with history and stunning views. Or, choose a hotel in Union Square, a hub of stylish shopping and outdoor cafés.

WHERE TO EAT:

Treat your group to the bounty of award-winning restaurants that make San Francisco a culinary paradise. A private dinner at a Michelin-starred restaurant like Angler is sure to be memorable, while artistry infuses every element of the immersive tasting experience at Michelin three-starred Atelier Crenn.

WHAT TO DO:

San Francisco is ideally situated for a variety of luxurious excursions. During warmer months, book a catamaran tour for your group to get breathtaking views of the skyline and icons like Alcatraz and the Golden Gate Bridge. Then, host a lunch in Sausalito before making the return trip. Or, charter a helicopter or limo to nearby Napa Valley and Sonoma County for a day of wine tasting and exquisite dining.

MEDICAL/PHARMA MEETING

San Francisco's leadership in science and technology is sure to inspire medical professionals.

WHERE TO STAY:

The South of Market (SoMa) neighborhood is located near many of the city's biggest attractions, dining and meeting-friendly hotels. With the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA), The Moscone Center, Yerba Buena Gardens and Oracle Park (home of the San Francisco Giants), there's no shortage of attractions within walking distance. Choose from a variety of accommodations including the elegant St. Regis Hotel San Francisco, the stylish Virgin Hotel and the tech-savvy Hotel VIA.

WHERE TO MEET:

Host a thought-provoking summit at the 12,500-square-foot Mission Bay Conference Center at UCSF. Located on the campus of one of the preeminent research hospitals in the world, this event epicenter provides top-notch catering, state-of-the-art technology and stimulating amenities for every purpose. UCSF/SFGH Orthopaedic Trauma Institute also offers smaller rooms for training, meetings and educational courses at their Mission Bay campus.

WHERE TO EAT:

For a smaller group in search of one of the city's top dining experiences, book a private room at Sessions at the Presidio. Capacities range from 24 in the Presidio Room to 60 in the Skywalker Room at the Letterman Digital Arts Center. Larger groups who would appreciate panoramic ocean views will be impressed by the classic Cliff House. Or, settle in for the elegant and visually enchanting prix fixe menu at Omakase, where the fish is handpicked by seasoned experts and flown straight from Tsukiji Fish Market in Tokyo three times a week.

SAN FRANCISCO NEIGHBORHOODS

EACH OF SAN FRANCISCO'S NEIGHBORHOODS HAS ITS OWN CULTURE AND CHARM. FROM HISTORIC INSTITUTIONS AND AWARD-WINNING CUISINE TO RENOWNED ARCHITECTURE AND TRENDY BOUTIQUES, THERE'S SOMETHING FOR EVERY TRAVELER.

the city is built on 43 hills	population 883,963	49 square miles (125 sq. km)	33,000+ hotel rooms

BAYVIEW

Home of the oldest opera house in San Francisco, this area is also an incubator for the city's creative scene. The old Hunters Point shipyard houses America's largest artists' colony.

CASTRO/NOE VALLEY

Find outdoor cafés, stately Victorian homes, a historic theater and bustling bars in the "LGBTQ capital of the world."

CENTRAL MARKET

This neighborhood features Twitter's HQ and a concentration of performance venues like the Orpheum and Golden Gate theaters.

CHINATOWN

This storied neighborhood is North America's first and oldest Chinatown, with colorful pagoda roofs, dragon lampposts, acclaimed dining and unique gift shops. It also features the must-see China Live gastronomy complex.

CIVIC CENTER/HAYES VALLEY

This cultural hub includes stately City Hall, the War Memorial Opera House and the Asian Art Museum alongside more modern additions, such as the SFJAZZ Center and New Conservatory Theatre Center.

EMBARCADERO/ FINANCIAL DISTRICT

The world's largest LED display, "The Bay Lights," sparkles on the Bay Bridge. The Exploratorium offers hundreds of hands-on exhibits and a creative event setting.

The Embarcadero

FILLMORE

Rich with rock and jazz history, Fillmore continues to be a place for legendary performances. Get fired up at a concert at the famed Fillmore music hall or mellow out with some retail therapy along Fillmore St.

FISHERMAN'S WHARF

One of the city's most popular attractions. Here you can "escape" to Alcatraz or set sail on San Francisco Bay with chartered boat tours. Don't miss the attractions at PIER 39 or Boudin, the city's sourdough purveyor for more than 150 years.

Conservatory of Flowers

GOLDEN GATE PARK/SUNSET

The 1,000-acre Golden Gate Park celebrates its 150th anniversary in 2020. It is home to some of the city's most famous attractions, including the California Academy of Sciences, the Conservatory of Flowers and the de Young Museum. True to its name, the Sunset neighborhood south of the park is a great place to watch the sun set over the Pacific Ocean.

HAIGHT-ASHBURY

1967's "Summer of Love" is immortalized in Haight-Ashbury's vintage clothing, book and record stores, while nearby Alamo Square's row of Victorian homes is one of the most photographed scenes in San Francisco.

JAPANTOWN

The oldest of only three Japantowns left in the U.S., the neighborhood is packed with culinary delights including ramen bars, shabu shabu, izikayas and Benkyodo, which has supplied the city with handmade rice confections since 1906.

MARINA/PACIFIC HEIGHTS

Pacific Heights includes some of the city's most opulent homes and excellent boutique shopping. The Marina is filled with trendy restaurants and features one of the city's most striking landmarks, the Palace of Fine Arts.

MISSION DISTRICT

San Francisco's oldest neighborhood, the center of its Latin American community, and its hippest district. From acclaimed restaurants and trendy boutiques to vibrant murals and the historic Mission Dolores, there's plenty to enjoy.

NOB HILL

Known not only as a geographic high point but an economic one, too, with a history of wealthy residents and now luxury hotels, beautiful gardens and impressive homes.

NORTH BEACH

Head to Coit Tower atop Telegraph Hill for historic murals and spectacular views. Enjoy Italian-American classics at Original Joe's and others.

PRESIDIO/RICHMOND

The southern anchor of the Golden Gate Bridge, the Presidio offers pristine nature and cultural attractions such as The Walt Disney Family Museum. In the Richmond, try the historic Cliff House for unbeatable views.

SOMA/YERBA BUENA

SoMa (South of Market) is museum central. The Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, the Museum of the African Diaspora, the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA) and more can be found here.

TREASURE ISLAND

Nestled in San Francisco Bay beneath the Bay Bridge, Treasure Island offers a burgeoning urban winery scene, popular flea markets and photo ops of the downtown skyline.

UNION SQUARE

Shop 'til you drop at Union Square, where big retailers — Bloomingdale's, Macy's, Neiman Marcus and Nordstrom, to name a few — offer all kinds of temptations. You're in the heart of the Theater District, too with A.C.T.'s Geary Theater and the Curran.

POINTS OF INTEREST

EXPLORE MORE OF SAN FRANCISCO BY GETTING TO KNOW THE GENERAL GEOGRAPHY, DISTINCTIVE NEIGHBORHOODS AND MAJOR POINTS OF INTEREST.

The following section provides details on many of the city's attractions, neighborhoods and other notable places. Armed with this, you'll be ready to build incredible itineraries for every interest.

ALAMO SQUARE

Corner of Hayes and Steiner streets.

One of the most photographed locations in San Francisco, Alamo Square's famous "postcard row" is indeed a visual treat. A tight, escalating formation of Victorian houses is backdropped by downtown skyscrapers, and the grassy square makes for an ideal midday break. One of 12 historic districts designated by the Department of City Planning, the area includes several bed-and-breakfast inns.

ALCATRAZ ISLAND

San Francisco Bay, 415-981-ROCK (7625) for reservations.

A mile and a half (2.4 km) from Fisherman's Wharf, Alcatraz (the name means "pelican" in Spanish) was the site of the first lighthouse built on the Pacific Coast, and then a federal prison for notorious convicts such as Al Capone. Now it is one of the city's most popular attractions (advance reservations are strongly recommended). Tours include a self-guided walk through the main cell blocks, a video presentation and audio tours narrated by former guards and inmates. Multilingual tours are available upon request.

ANGEL ISLAND STATE PARK

San Francisco Bay, 415-435-5390 for information.

Often referred to as the "Ellis Island of the West," the Angel Island Immigration Station originally opened on Jan. 21, 1910, and closed in 1940 after a fire destroyed the administration building.

During that time, more than 1 million individuals were processed through the center, including an estimated 175,000 Chinese immigrants and 150,000 Japanese immigrants. The Immigration Station was designated as a National Historic Landmark in 1997. Ferry service to the 740-acre island, the largest in San Francisco Bay, is available from Fisherman's Wharf, Tiburon and Alameda/Oakland; service is limited during the winter. Bike rentals, audio-enhanced historic tram tours, Segway tours, café, picnic and camping facilities are available. Dogs, skateboards and scooters are not permitted.

AQUATIC PARK

Foot of Polk St.

At the west end of Fisherman's Wharf, this bayside park encompasses a quarter-mile stretch of beach, the Maritime Museum and a pier that is popular with local fishermen.

Alcatraz Island

CABLE CARS

San Francisco is the only place in the world where people can ride on a National Historic Landmark. Refurbished in 1984, they operate much as they did on Aug. 2, 1873, when Andrew S. Hallidie guided the first car down Clay St. Today's fleet totals 40; the adult fare is $8. A ride on a cable car and a visit to the free Cable Car Museum are the best ways to understand the system, its mechanics and worldwide popularity.

Cable Car

CANDLESTICK POINT

From Highway 101, take Candlestick Park exit and follow the shoreline to the Candlestick Point State Recreation Area.

Visitors can enjoy panoramic views of the bay, the East Bay hills, the San Bruno Mountains and relax in the peaceful park itself. Its location on the western shoreline of San Francisco Bay provides a variety of recreational opportunities such as windsurfing, fishing, bird watching, walking and hiking. The trails, group picnic sites and fishing piers at this urban park offer access to open space and outdoor activities.

CASTRO DISTRICT

Market and Castro streets.

Steep streets and brightly painted Victorian houses give this “Gay Mecca” that distinct, San Francisco look. Landmarks include the Castro Theatre built in 1922; Harvey Milk Plaza, dedicated to one of the first openly gay elected officials in the U.S.; and Pink Triangle Park, a memorial to 15,000 LGBTQ Holocaust victims. The GLBT History Museum on 18th St. collects, preserves and promotes an active knowledge of the history, art and culture of sexually diverse communities. The Rainbow Honor Walk honors pioneers and icons of the LGBTQ movement. The San Francisco Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Community Center is on nearby Market St. Each June, the SF Pride Parade draws more than 500,000 participants and spectators.

CHINA BEACH

Sea Cliff Ave., between Lincoln Park and the Presidio.

This former campground for Chinese fishermen is situated right by the Golden Gate. The 600-foot (183-meter) beach is ideal for sunbathing and picnicking. Swimming is not permitted.

CHINATOWN

Grant Ave. between Bush St. and Columbus Ave. and adjacent streets.

San Francisco’s Chinatown is one of the largest in the U.S., offering authentic shops, restaurants, food markets, temples and museums, including the Chinese Historical Society of America and the Chinese Culture Center. Pagoda-style roofs and decorative balconies dominate the architecture, and street lamps are entwined with dragons. Grant Ave., the district’s main street, is a spectacle during the annual Chinese New Year and Autumn Moon Festival celebrations.

CIVIC CENTER

Van Ness, Market and Golden Gate triangle.

A monumental assembly of federal, state and city buildings, San Francisco’s Civic Center is among the most impressive in the United States. The magnificent City Hall is crowned by a dome taller than the U.S. Capitol. Tours of City Hall are conducted on a regular basis. For information, call 415-554-6139. Louise M. Davies Symphony Hall, the War Memorial Veterans Building, the War Memorial Opera House, Bill Graham Civic Auditorium, SFJAZZ Center, the Asian Art Museum, the Main Library and other institutions are all nearby.

Cliff House

CLIFF HOUSE

1090 Point Lobos Ave.

The restored 1909 structure offers magnificent views of the Pacific Ocean and Seal Rocks. The main building offers outdoor observation decks, as well as several restaurants ranging from take-home favorites to an elegant main dining room.

CRISSY FIELD

Shoreline of the Presidio southeast of the Golden Gate Bridge.

This is a favorite spot to stroll, sit and sip a cup of freshly brewed coffee. Blue herons, native plants and an expanse of wild, wind-swept shoreline provide a great escape. The Crissy Field Center, a partnership of the Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy and the National Park Service, provides a variety of programs, services and amenities for visitors including walks, workshops and events.

THE EMBARCADERO

Southeast of Fisherman’s Wharf.

The Embarcadero is where miles of deep-water piers shelter ships of all flags. It’s also home to the Exploratorium, which features more than 650 hands-on exhibits. The Port of San Francisco operates the cruise ship terminal at Pier 27. Here, too, at the foot of Market St., is the Ferry Building, a vibrant public space housing high-end retailers, a food hall, restaurants and a farmers’ market. The Ferry Building is also the terminal for ferries to Marin County, Vallejo, Oakland, South San Francisco and Alameda. Historic streetcars offer easy access to the area as well.

FILLMORE STREET

Fillmore St. south of Broadway.

Near Pacific Heights are a number of intimate cafés and restaurants, as well as a concentration of upscale stores. The 2000 – 2200 blocks of Fillmore offer shoppers a smorgasbord of boutiques with vintage clothing, used books, records, costumes and the next-to-new. The Juneteenth Celebration is an outdoor event held each June to celebrate African-American culture. The Fillmore District (Fillmore St. between Geary Blvd. and Eddy St.) is home to clubs and restaurants.

Salesforce Park

THE FINANCIAL DISTRICT

North and south of Market St., from Kearny St. to the Embarcadero.

San Francisco’s bustling downtown is a center of commerce and architectural innovation. The carnelian marble-covered, 779-foot-high (237 meters) Bank of America building at 555 California St.; the unique, 853-foot-high (258 meters) Transamerica Pyramid at 600 Montgomery St.; and the 724-foot-high (219 meters) 345 California Center at 345 California St. are landmarks of the city’s skyline. Recent additions include the Salesforce Tower, which at 1,070 feet (326 meters) is now the city’s tallest building, and the Salesforce Transit Center, which includes a Grand Hall entrance, gondola and rooftop public park.

FISHERMAN’S WHARF

Jefferson and Taylor streets, extending east and west along the waterfront.

Fishing boats, seafood stalls, steaming crab cauldrons and seafood restaurants. That’s how you know you’re at world-famous Fisherman’s Wharf. Souvenir shops, museums and attractions augment the atmosphere. The Blessing of the Fishing Fleet occurs on the first Sunday in October and the crab season extends from mid-November to June. Two cable car lines terminate in the area, with sightseeing boat tours leaving from Piers 39, 41 and 43. Cruises to Alcatraz Island depart from Pier 33. Many bus lines and the historic E and F lines serve the area.

FORT MASON

Upper Fort Mason, Bay and Franklin streets (GGNRA Headquarters and San Francisco International Hostel), 415-771-7277. Fort Mason Center for Arts & Culture, Buchanan St. and Marina Blvd., 415-345-7500.

Fort Mason, a former military installation, is the headquarters for the Golden Gate National Recreation Area (GGNRA). Information and maps on all GGNRA programs and facilities are available at Park Headquarters, Building 201, upper Fort Mason. A 156-bed hostel is located nearby. The Fort Mason Center for Arts & Culture's Festival Pavilion, located in lower Fort Mason, is used frequently for large exhibitions, fairs, a popular food truck gathering and more. Information on events is available at the main office, Landmark Building A, Fort Mason Center.

FORT POINT NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

Reached via Lincoln Blvd. to Long Ave. 415-556-1693.

Designated as a National Historic Site in 1970, this much-photographed landmark at the base of the south end of the Golden Gate Bridge was constructed between 1853 and 1861. The three-tiered structure surrounds a large courtyard built to accommodate 126 cannon mounts and 500 soldiers. Films chronicling the history of the fort and the building of the Golden Gate Bridge are shown daily. Free guided tours and cannon demonstrations are also available.

49 MILE SCENIC DRIVE

This planned tour throughout San Francisco exposes you to all the sights. Follow the seagull signs for a scenic circuit that includes some of the city's most popular visitor attractions and unique neighborhoods. Allow a minimum of three to four hours. Maps of the drive are available from San Francisco Travel.

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE

Spanning the entrance to San Francisco Bay. Once called "the bridge that couldn't be built," today it's one of the seven wonders of the modern world. This magnificent span, perhaps San Francisco's most famous landmark, opened in 1937 after a four-year struggle against relentless winds, fog, rock and treacherous tides. It links the city with Marin County and the Redwood Empire beyond. You can walk, bike, bus or drive across. The south end of the bridge includes a welcome center and more. There is no more manual cash collection; toll payment by FasTrak or Pay-by-Plate. For details, visit goldengate.org/tolls.

GOLDEN GATE NATIONAL RECREATION AREA

In 1972, the United States Congress created a vast recreation area in San Francisco and Marin counties to protect coastal lands from development and to provide an urban park for the heavily populated San Francisco area. This is the Golden Gate National Recreation Area (GGNRA). Few urban shorelines contain this diversity: islands, redwood forests, a former federal prison, ocean beaches, retired military installations and historic points of interest. Across the Golden Gate Bridge, the GGNRA encompasses vast areas of undeveloped lands in the Marin Headlands, as well as wildlife sanctuaries, picnic facilities and miles of trails. Just beyond the GGNRA's northern boundary is the 67,000-acre (27,114 hectares) Point Reyes National Seashore. To the south, 4,700 acres (1,900 hectares) in San Mateo County include Sweeney Ridge where, in 1769, the first Europeans saw San Francisco Bay. Maps and information on GGNRA activities are available from Park Headquarters, Building 201, Fort Mason, Bay and Franklin streets, 415-561-4700, or the Marin Headlands Visitor Center, 415-331-1540.

Dutch Windmill, Golden Gate Park

GOLDEN GATE PARK

From Stanyan St. to the Pacific Ocean, between Fulton St. and Lincoln Blvd., 415-831-2700.

These magnificent 1,017 acres (412 hectares) were once an open expanse of dunes. Developed in 1871, Golden Gate Park is among the largest man-made parks in the world. Amid countless trees and 7,000 kinds of plants are paddock fields with bison, lakes for rowing, play areas and a treasure of varied attractions including the de Young Museum, California Academy of Sciences, Japanese Tea Garden, Conservatory of Flowers, San Francisco Botanical Garden, The National AIDS Memorial Grove, Sharon Art Studio and the restored 1912 carousel in Children's Playground. Nearby, NoPa (short for "north of the Panhandle") offers excellent dining options.

GRACE CATHEDRAL

1100 California St., 415-749-6300.

The seat of the Episcopal bishop of California, the cathedral is one of the finest examples of Gothic architecture and the third-largest Episcopal cathedral in the United States. At the east entrance are exact replicas of the Ghiberti doors of the Florence Baptistery.

Piedmont Boutique, Haight-Ashbury

HAIGHT-ASHBURY

Haight and Ashbury streets near Golden Gate Park Panhandle.

More than 50 years later, the Summer of Love lives on mainly in stores; vintage clothing, books and records are abundant along Haight St., the neighborhood's busiest stretch. Places of interest include 710 Ashbury St., once home to the legendary band the Grateful Dead; 112 Lyon St., where famous singer Janis Joplin lived (Note: these are private residences); Buena Vista Park, with its views of the city; and, for architectural highlights, Masonic Ave., Piedmont and Delmar streets.

HAYES VALLEY

Hayes St., west of Civic Center.

A short distance from Civic Center is Hayes Valley, which boasts galleries, antique shops, restaurants and book nooks. Patricia's Green, at Hayes and Octavia streets, is a neighborhood favorite with rotating temporary art installations, including some Burning Man favorites.

JACKSON SQUARE

Jackson St. from Montgomery St. to Battery, extending one block north and south.

An authentic reminder of the rowdy Barbary Coast and Gold Rush era, Jackson Square has handsome 19th century buildings that serve as showrooms for interior decorators, antique and art dealers. Chic specialty shops and restaurants add to the charm.

Japanese Tea Garden

JAPANESE TEA GARDEN

75 Hagiwara Tea Garden Dr., 415-831-2700.

Created in 1894 as a Japanese village for the California Mid-Winter Exposition, this four-acre exhibit (1.6 hectares) is one of the city's most beloved treasures. It includes a tea house, pagoda, Buddha, torii gates and several small pools, streams and bridges. Cherry blossoms, azaleas and flowering shrubs enhance its tranquil beauty. The 9,000-pound Peace Lantern was presented by Japanese children in 1953 as a symbol of friendship.

JAPANTOWN

Geary, Fillmore, Sutter and Laguna streets.

Travelers can visit Japan just 1.1 miles (1.8 km) west of downtown. Nihonmachi, as Japantown is known to the city's residents of Japanese descent, is one of only three in the United States. The Japan Center is a five-acre complex of shops, restaurants, sushi bars, movie theaters, galleries and Japanese baths. The Peace Plaza, crowned by a five-tier pagoda, is the main setting for such celebrations as the annual Cherry Blossom Festival (April), Nihonmachi Street Fair (August) and several smaller festivals.

Japantown Peace Pagoda

LAKE MERCED

Southwest corner of the city.

Adjacent to the San Francisco Zoo & Gardens and TPC Harding Park Golf Course, Lake Merced is a favorite place for fun and relaxation. Once an ocean lagoon before it was separated by sand dunes, the lake is now fed by freshwater springs. It offers the only trout fishing in San Francisco and is also popular for boating and sailing.

LINCOLN PARK

West of the Presidio, bisected by El Camino del Mar. Main entrance at Clement St. and 34th Ave.

These 270 acres (109 hectares) of green space provide an impressive view of the Golden Gate Bridge. Two-hundred-foot cliffs (61 meters) enhance the grandeur. The Legion of Honor's art collection, the Holocaust memorial and the Lincoln Park Municipal Golf Course are the principal attractions.

LITTLE SAIGON

Lower Larkin St.

Just beyond the Asian Art Museum's front door at Larkin St., the area from McAllister to O'Farrell streets has been designated Little Saigon. Some 250 Vietnamese-owned businesses are concentrated in this area and the nearby Tenderloin. For budget-friendly meals, this is a good fit, from banh mi (tasty sandwiches on baguettes) to pho (rice noodle soup).

MARINA GREEN

Shoreline of the Bay, from Webster to Scott streets.

This broad waterfront lawn developed on the site of the 1915 Panama-Pacific International Exposition provides a restful place to view the boats sailing out from San Francisco's Yacht Harbor or participating in weekend regattas.

Get excellent views of the Golden Gate Bridge as well. Runners consider this one of the best spots for daily workouts.

MISSION BAY

Third St., south of Mission Creek Channel.

Easily reached on the T-Third Muni Metro, Mission Bay has grown into a busy waterfront neighborhood. Featuring the renowned University of California - San Francisco, Mission Bay medical campus and the Chase Center, home to the Golden State Warriors, this neighborhood is the latest must-see for visitors.

MISSION DISTRICT

South of Market St. between Potrero Ave. and Sanchez St.

Mission St., the main thoroughfare in the district, once linked the Mission San Francisco de Asis (Mission Dolores) to the bay. Boasting one of the best climates in the city, the Mission has always been a bustling community. Some of the city's most promising young chefs are making names for themselves here. Valencia St. has become a hotbed of new restaurants and shopping. Cinco de Mayo and Carnaval occur in May.

MISSION DOLORES

16th and Dolores streets, 415-621-8203.

Founded in 1776, Mission San Francisco de Asis is the sixth of 21 missions established by the Franciscan Fathers in California. Moorish, Mission and Corinthian styles combine in the church, the oldest intact structure in San Francisco; the altar and decorations are from Spain and Mexico. Alongside is a garden and cemetery where many pioneers are buried.

NOB HILL

California and Mason streets and adjacent blocks.

Once a fashionable residential district for silver kings and railroad barons, known colloquially as "nabobs," Nob Hill is now home to elegant hotels, apartments and restaurants. Views from atop the InterContinental Mark Hopkins and

NOE VALLEY

West of Dolores St. between 22nd and 30th streets.

The heart of Noe Valley, San Francisco's "village within the city," is 24th St. This colorful, pedestrian-friendly thoroughfare boasts trendy boutiques, comfortable pubs, outdoor cafés and restaurants. Visitors can explore retailers selling imported cheeses, gelato, herbs and oils, hard-to-find magazines, and coffee beans and teas from around the world.

NORTH BEACH

North of Broadway and east of Columbus Ave.

There's no beach like North Beach — in fact, there's no beach at all. The area's name comes from the 1850s, when a finger of the bay extended inland and the neighborhood was a sunny shore. Today, it encompasses one of San Francisco's busiest nightlife areas with cabarets, jazz, cappuccino houses, offbeat bistros and established restaurants. All around are the vibrant accents of the city's inhabitants of Italian descent. Delicatessens are filled with enticing appetizers: provolone, prosciutto, focaccia and on and on. Washington Square is an ideal spot for a picnic lunch.

OCEAN BEACH

Along Great Highway at the western edge of San Francisco.

On the westernmost edge of the city is an area of sand and surf that has long been a favorite with tourists and sunset watchers. Swimming and wading at this beach are strongly discouraged because of strong currents and frigid waters. Seal Rocks are small, stony islands just offshore at the foot of Point Lobos Ave.; except for a few loners, most of the sea lions have departed for cozier quarters at PIER 39. Here, too, is the Cliff House.

OLD ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL

660 California St. at Grant Ave., 415-986-4388.

Old St. Mary's is the city's first cathedral. Erected in 1854, it is diagonally across from St. Mary's Square, where a statue of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, by sculptor Beniamino Bufano, presides.

ORACLE PARK

24 Willie Mays Plaza, Third and King streets.

See San Francisco Giants listing on page PD45.

PALACE OF FINE ARTS

Baker St. on the eastern edge of The Presidio.

Built for the 1915 Panama-Pacific International Exposition, The Palace of Fine Arts was created to showcase works of art. Now, the soaring central rotunda, which was inspired by Greek and Roman architecture, is what visitors come to see.

PORTSMOUTH SQUARE

Kearny St. between Clay and Washington streets.

Commander John B. Montgomery disembarked from the sloop Portsmouth to raise the U.S. flag on this spot on July 9, 1846, claiming possession of San Francisco (then Yerba Buena). California's first public schoolhouse stood here, African-American pioneer William A. Leidesdorff opened the city's first hotel (City Hotel) at the corner of Clay and Kearny streets, and a monument to Robert Louis Stevenson was erected in 1897. Now, it's the heart of Chinatown and is a popular gathering place for neighborhood residents.

Brunch at Plow Restaurant, Potrero Hill

POTRERO HILL

16th St. to Cesar Chavez between U.S. 101 and I-280.

Within the city's "sunbelt," Potrero Hill takes advantage of its sunny outlook with outdoor film series and numerous sidewalk cafés. It is also one of the few areas to survive the 1906 earthquake and fire. One of 12 historic districts in the city, the neighboring area known as Dogpatch is home to several urban wineries and the Museum of Craft and Design.

THE PRESIDIO OF SAN FRANCISCO

Northwest corner of San Francisco; main gate at Lombard and Lyon streets.

Founded in 1776, the Presidio served as a military garrison under the flags of Spain, Mexico and the U.S. before it became a national park in 1994. Its long history is reflected in many ways: 17th century cannons, a diversity of architectural styles, and a forest planted in the 1880s. Within the boundaries of this 1,480-acre (599 hectares) preserve are the Walt Disney Family Museum, the Presidio Officers' Club, San Francisco National Military Cemetery and Fort Point. The Presidio is part of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area.

RICHMOND DISTRICT

Northwest corner of the city between the Presidio and Golden Gate Park.

In the Richmond, it's possible to shop in a Russian grocery, sip a beer in an Irish pub and have dinner in a Chinese restaurant, all within walking distance of one another. Many cultures inhabit the Clement St. shopping sector. On Geary Blvd., Russian bakeries offering piroshki stand alongside Greek delis and kosher meat markets. With an estimated 35 percent of the city's Chinese-Americans residing in the area, Chinese food markets, restaurants and dim sum parlors are abundant.

RUSSIAN HILL

Between Nob Hill and Fisherman's Wharf.

Country-like lanes and panoramic views of San Francisco Bay lace beautiful Russian Hill. It takes its name from the Russian sea otter and seal hunters who were active in California waters in the early 1800s. Today, it is one of San Francisco's most prestigious addresses. It's also home to Lombard St., known as "the crookedest street in the world," with eight hairpin turns in the single block between Hyde and Leavenworth streets.

SACRAMENTO STREET

Sacramento St. between Broderick and Spruce streets.

Many of the shops, galleries and boutiques along this browsable stretch occupy turn-of-the-century buildings. Interspersed among apparel, antique, art, gift and home furnishing outlets are coffeehouses, snack bars and a movie theater.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Geary and Gough streets (Cathedral Hill) 415-567-2020.

St. Mary's, an edifice of striking contemporary design (not to be confused with Old St. Mary's in Chinatown), is one of the city's architectural glories. Its exterior is Italian travertine, approached via spacious brick plazas. Inside, stained-glass windows divide the ceiling and extend down the four sides of the cathedral to form a multicolored cruciform.

SAN FRANCISCO PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Van Ness Ave. between Grove and McAllister streets, 415-552-8338 (tour information).

The San Francisco Performing Arts Center encompasses Louise M. Davies Symphony Hall, the War Memorial Opera House and the Veterans Building, and is one of the largest performing arts centers in the U.S. The War Memorial Opera House (3,126 seats) is the home of the San Francisco Opera and the San Francisco Ballet, and hosts major opera, dance and performing arts groups. Louise M. Davies Symphony Hall (2,739 seats), home of the San Francisco Symphony, hosts all types of musical performances. Herbst Theatre (892 seats), on the ground floor of the War Memorial Veterans Building, is suitable for both theatrical and musical offerings. Tours are available.

SAN FRANCISCO-OAKLAND BAY BRIDGE

Opened six months before the Golden Gate Bridge, the Bay Bridge has connected the city with Oakland and the East Bay since 1936. In 2013, a $6.4 billion construction project was completed, replacing the east span of the bridge with the world's largest self-anchored suspension span. "The Bay Lights," a glittering 25,000 LED-light installation, was added to commemorate the bridge's 75th anniversary. This incredible structure spans eight miles (13.3 km) across the bay via Yerba Buena Island. In 2013, the western span of the bridge was named the Willie L. Brown, Jr. Bridge in honor of San Francisco's first African-American mayor. Auto toll collected westbound only.

SIGMUND STERN GROVE

Sloat Blvd. and 19th Ave.

Music among the trees is the lure of this restful glen. During summer Sunday afternoons, this natural amphitheater, sheltered by eucalyptus, redwood and fir trees, becomes "Nature's Music Box" and is the setting for free performances from opera to hip-hop.

SOUTH BEACH

Eastern waterfront south of Ferry Building.

This mixed-use waterfront neighborhood has plenty to observe and explore. Among the most prominent landmarks in the area is Oracle Park, home of the San Francisco Giants, at 24 Willie Mays Plaza. Kayak tours from South Beach Harbor and a 700-slip marina encourage bay adventures.

SOUTH OF MARKET (SOMA)

South of Market St. and east of Division St.

SoMa includes two square miles of nightclubs, fashionable restaurants, experimental theaters and galleries. Major points of interest in this area include the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA), Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, The Moscone Center, Children's Creativity Museum, the Contemporary Jewish Museum and Metreon.

SUNSET DISTRICT

Southwest corner of the city, south of Golden Gate Park and north of Sloat Blvd.

The same vision that transformed Golden Gate Park into a green oasis influenced the transformation of the Sunset in the early 1900s. There are some serious coffeehouses to take the chill off after a stroll along Ocean Beach, and La Playa Park, a sliver of green between Kirkham and Judah streets right on the edge of the Pacific, is a good spot to relax and watch coastal swells.

Coit Tower

TELEGRAPH HILL/COIT TOWER

Northeast corner of the city, reached via Lombard St., 415-362-0808.

Overlooking the bay, Telegraph Hill is a reminder of San Francisco's history. Its name stems from earlier days, when a semaphore was used to signal the town below to the approach of ships through the Golden Gate. At the summit of Telegraph Hill is Coit Tower, built in 1933. It is the legacy of Lillie Hitchcock Coit, who left a $125,000 bequest to San Francisco "for the purpose of adding beauty to the city which I have always loved." The ground floor lobby is adorned with a series of fresco murals by some 30 local artists, depicting life in 1930s San Francisco. Guided docent tours are available. An elevator to its 210-foot-high observation platform operates daily. Because of heavy traffic, public transit is strongly recommended for access; on weekends, parking near the tower may be limited to residents only.

San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge

New Year's Celebration at Union Square

THE TENDERLOIN

Between Union Square and Civic Center, north of Market St.

Thousands of immigrants from Laos, Cambodia and Vietnam have given this 20-square-block district new life. Sermons on social justice blend with rockin' choir music on Sundays at Glide Memorial Church on Ellis St., symbolizing the neighborhood's resurgence. EXIT Theatre, the Tenderloin Museum, a crop of new art galleries and some 200 restaurants and cafés point to an upbeat feeling.

TREASURE ISLAND

East of San Francisco via the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge.

Treasure Island was created for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition to celebrate the completion of both the Golden Gate and San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridges. Its location offers spectacular views of San Francisco's skyline. Popular events on the island include a monthly flea market and several wineries.

TWIN PEAKS

Center of the city reached via Twin Peaks Blvd.

Noted for their sweeping vistas and 360-degree views of the entire Bay Area, these two towering hills have an elevation of about 920 feet (280 meters) and are located near the geographic center of the city. The surrounding 65-acre park (26 hectares) is popular with hikers, sightseers and photographers.

UNION SQUARE

Two blocks on either side of Union Square bordered by Geary, Powell, Post and Stockton streets.

A hub for both shopping and local transportation, Union Square is among the city's most popular destinations. Within sight of the towering monument to Admiral George Dewey at the center of the square, visitors will find landmark hotels, flagship stores, top theaters, renowned art galleries and more. Hallidie Plaza at the foot of Powell St. is where BART and Muni service converge with the city's famous cable cars.

UNION STREET/COW HOLLOW

Union St. between Russian Hill and the Presidio.

Discover charming Victorians and colorful courtyards filled with more than 200 specialty shops. This 10-block area attracts an international clientele, as well as city residents. Union St. features the latest fashions for men and women, custom-designed jewelry and crafts, children's shops and an eclectic mix of galleries. Savor the taste of San Francisco's renowned cuisine at a sidewalk café or one of many restaurants offering international and California dishes.

WESTERN ADDITION

Embracing four historic districts — Webster St., Bush St., Cottage Row and Alamo Square.

Renowned for Victorian architecture, the Western Addition is one of the city's most diverse areas. A thriving Japanese-American community and the African-American Art & Culture Complex on Fulton St. reflect the neighborhood's rich and varied heritage. A platform for the discussion of issues and trends affecting African-Americans, the center also houses the San Francisco African-American Historical & Cultural Society, an art gallery and a theater. The area is known for a number of historic African-American churches.

WEST PORTAL

North of Portola Dr. near Sloat Blvd.

Like many of San Francisco's residential neighborhoods, West Portal has a cozy character. "Detached homes," something of a rarity in San Francisco, are popular in the nearby residential areas. The tree-lined sidewalks of St. Francis Wood, Forest Hill and Balboa Terrace are perfect for a "stretch-the-legs" stroll. Along West Portal Ave., you'll find toy and gift shops and restaurants of all persuasions.

Skyline from Twin Peaks

YERBA BUENA GARDENS

Blocks bordered by Third, Fourth, Folsom and Mission streets.

Yerba Buena Gardens encompasses 87 acres (35 hectares) of downtown development, including the city's recently expanded convention facility, The Moscone Center, which is also home to a new full-service Visitor Information Center. Numerous museums and galleries are headquartered here, including the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts' visual arts and theater buildings, a sculpture court and garden. The center overlooks a park with cafés, an outdoor performance area and a walk-through waterfall leading to a memorial to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The Rooftop at Yerba Buena Gardens features an ice skating rink, bowling center, carousel and the Children's Creativity Museum, an interdisciplinary arts center for young people.

PLACES THAT GIVE US PRIDE

In June of 2020, San Francisco will celebrate the 50th anniversary of its first Pride celebration — but you can visit fascinating places that represent significant contributions to LGBTQ history all year round.

HARVEY MILK PLAZA

The largest flagpole in the city flies a rainbow banner above Harvey Milk Plaza, which begins above ground at Castro and Market streets and descends a wide curving stairway to the Muni Metro station entrance. A brass plaque describes Milk's life, work and death, and concludes with a pithy comment from the first openly gay supervisor in San Francisco on his role in the gay community: "I am all of us!" Just above the station is the Pink Triangle Memorial Park, a memorial to the LGBTQ victims of the Holocaust.

GLIDE MEMORIAL CHURCH

Three decades after it opened in the early 1930s, Glide Memorial Church (330 Ellis St.) joined the national movement among religious organizations to focus more actively on social justice. In 1964, Glide helped bring together religious leaders and homophile activists (precursors to the gay rights movement) in San Francisco to form the Council on Religion and the Homosexual (CRH) — the first organization in the U.S. to include "homosexual" in the title.

GOLDEN GATE PARK/AIDS MEMORIAL GROVE

The National AIDS Memorial Grove, or "The Grove," is located in the eastern part of Golden Gate Park in the San Francisco Botanical Garden. This is a dedicated space where millions of Americans affected directly or indirectly by AIDS can gather to honor, cherish, embrace and heal.

GLBT History Museum, Castro District

GLBT HISTORY MUSEUM AND ARCHIVES

Affectionately known as the "Queer Smithsonian," the GLBT History Museum (4127 18th St.) is the first full-scale museum of its kind in the United States. The museum is a project of the GLBT Historical Society, which houses its famed archives that contain an impressive collection of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender historical materials. After exploring the museum, head over to Cliff's Variety (479 Castro St.), a Castro institution since 1936. You'll find everything from hammers and nails to boas and tiaras among its 65,000 items.

The Ladies of Asia SF

ASIA SF

Located at 201 Ninth St., this favorite spot combines restaurant, lounge and dance club elements to celebrate diversity. Since 1998, its world-famous transgender stars, the Ladies of Asia SF, have been the focal point of the experience, and their talent has made it a go-to for an ultimate San Francisco experience.

SAN FRANCISCO GAY MEN'S CHORUS

The San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus (SFGMC) is the world's first openly gay chorus, today with a membership of about 300 voices. Founded by gay music pioneer Jon Reed Sims, the group is most often credited with creating the LGBTQ choral movement with a mission to spread social equality for the LGBTQ community. The chorus blends a season of local performances around the city with ongoing social and political activism.

BEYOND SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO OFFERS PLENTY OF ATTRACTIONS AND ENTERTAINMENT TO KEEP VISITORS BUSY DURING THEIR STAY, BUT TRIPS BEYOND THE CITY CAN TAKE YOU TO MANY OTHER WORLD-CLASS DESTINATIONS, ALL WITHIN A RELATIVELY SHORT DRIVE.

NORTH

SAUSALITO/MARIN

On the north side of the Golden Gate Bridge, Marin County's parks and trails offer stunning views of the bridge and city skyline. There's more natural beauty at the Point Reyes National Seashore and Muir Woods (make parking and shuttle reservations up to 90 days in advance by phone or at gomuirwoods.com). Communities like Sausalito and Tiburon offer charming Main Streets with fine dining, shopping and waterfront views.

NAPA VALLEY

One of the world's most celebrated wine regions, Napa Valley boasts more than 400 wineries. Travelers will discover exquisite wine tasting opportunities, unforgettable farm-to-table cuisine and some of the world's best chefs — all just a short drive north of the city. The area's picturesque scenery is also perfect for a hike, bike tour, hot air balloon ride or golf.

SONOMA COUNTY

Nearby Sonoma County represents some of the best of Northern California — premium wine, farm-to-table dining, organic farms and orchards, breweries and distilleries, and artisan cheese producers (be sure to check out the California Cheese Trail) — all surrounded by incredible natural beauty that stretches from the rocky coast of Bodega Bay to the redwood forests of Guerneville and rolling hills of wine country.

SHASTA CASCADE

Nature lovers will enjoy the many opportunities for outdoor adventures in the Shasta Cascade. Experience camping, hiking, skiing, fishing, rafting, snowboarding and mountaineering — all within the beautiful landscape of Lake Shasta and the towering, 14,000-foot-tall (4,264 meters) Mt. Shasta.

FIND MORE TRIP IDEAS AND ACTIVITIES BEYOND SAN FRANCISCO ON OUR WEBSITE: SFTRAVEL.COM/BEYOND-SF

EAST

EAST BAY

Just a short drive or quick BART ride east of San Francisco is a region full of booming culture and trendsetting restaurants. Notable locales in the East Bay include Oakland, with its creative community and dining scene; Berkeley, the destination that invented farm-to-table cuisine and home to one of the world's leading universities; and the Tri-Valley, which features a small but thriving wine region and popular Tri-Valley Ice Cream Trail.

SACRAMENTO

In California's rapidly growing state capital, visit Downtown Commons (DOCO), a popular shopping and entertainment area that includes the Golden 1 Center, home to the NBA's Sacramento Kings. Parts of the city still have an Old West ambiance; Old Sacramento offers restored 19th century saloons and shops. En route via I-80, Yolo County offers verdant farmlands, bike trails, historic towns and cultural activities, many of them centered at the University of California-Davis.

GOLD COUNTRY

California's Gold Country, which includes Tuolumne County, is one of the most direct routes to Yosemite National Park and the spectacular High Sierra. Jamestown, Sonora, Columbia and other historic towns are the perfect complement to days of hiking, biking, water sports and much more.

LAKE TAHOE

The largest alpine lake in North America, Lake Tahoe is famous for its crystal clear waters and snowcapped mountains. Sitting on the border of California and Nevada, the area offers a wide variety of outdoor activities for every season. It's also home to a number of top casinos on its Nevada side.

YOSEMITE

Outdoor lovers around the world know Yosemite, and its iconic natural landmarks are accessible from San Francisco. In just a three-hour drive, visitors can enjoy hiking, rock climbing, mountain biking, skiing and rafting, as well as famous sights like Yosemite Falls and the granite cliffs known as El Capitan. They'll also discover a variety of accommodations, ranging from campsites to a historic AAA four-diamond hotel.

SOUTH

BEACH COMMUNITIES

Experience a stunning scenic drive down Highway 1 (Pacific Coast Hwy.) to the string of beach communities south of the city. Visitors can watch surfers conquer the legendary swells at Half Moon Bay or ride the wooden rollercoaster on the historic Santa Cruz Boardwalk. Each beach town offers unique attractions, as well as a charming mix of surf shops, fishing stands and restaurants with a view.

MONTEREY COUNTY

One of California's most beautiful areas, Monterey County offers a variety of activities: the scenic 17-Mile Drive, rounds of golf at internationally famous courses like Pebble Beach and Spyglass Hill, world-class dining, a renowned aquarium and wine tastings.

SILICON VALLEY

The world's most famous region for high-tech entrepreneurship is just a short trip south from San Francisco. In San Jose, travelers will find fun museums, unique dining, historic sites and natural beauty. Nearby Santa Clara features Levi's® Stadium, home of the San Francisco 49ers, and thrilling rollercoasters at California's Great America amusement park.

SAN FRANCISCO AIRPORT AMENITIES

IT ONLY MAKES SENSE THAT A CITY LIKE SAN FRANCISCO WOULD HAVE AN AIRPORT WITH NEARLY AS MANY OPTIONS FOR DINING AND CULTURE AS THE CITY ITSELF. FRESH SEAFOOD WHILE WAITING FOR YOUR FLIGHT? CHECK. AN ART MUSEUM? YUP. FREE WI-FI? OF COURSE! HERE ARE A FEW GREAT REASONS WHY SFO DESERVES TO BE YOUR FAVORITE AIRPORT.

GETTING TO AND FROM SFO

- Public Transit: Take SFO's free AirTrain from any terminal to the Garage G/ BART Station stop. A one-way BART ticket to downtown San Francisco costs $9.65 or $19.30 for a round trip (RT Blue Ticket), or $9.15 and $18.30 (RT), plus a $3 surcharge for a new Clipper card. Either ticket can be purchased in the station at the designated ticket machines. Trains depart every 15- 20 minutes. SFO BART tickets can also be purchased online for inbound passengers only. You can buy round trip Blue Tickets to San Francisco, Oakland or Berkeley for only $21. This ticket includes enough fare ($1.70) to begin a one-way ride to any station in San Francisco, but will require paying $.80 at the end of the ride to exit the station. You can upgrade the ticket at any BART Ticket Machine for a round trip to East Bay BART destinations or trips to another BART station. For more airport information, go to the Airport Connections page at bart.gov. For information on taking BART to other areas/cities with stations, go to the Stations page at bart.gov.
- Rental cars agencies are conveniently located on site. Rental operators offer a large fleet of eco-friendly options.
- Taxis depart from designated taxi zones located at the roadway center islands, on the Arrivals/Baggage Claim Level of all terminals. Uniformed taxi coordinators are stationed at the taxi zones from 7 a.m. – 1 a.m. to assist passengers with questions or concerns. The cost is usually $46-$66 to downtown San Francisco including a $4.50 airport surcharge.
- Door-to-Door Vans provide service between SFO and specified locations in shared vans. Depending on the number of passengers, door-to-door vans may make multiple stops. Van service is available on a walk-up basis, but passengers should make reservations for service after 11 p.m. Pickup is on the Departures/Ticketing Level from the roadway center island at all terminals. Advance reservations are required to the airport.
- Airporters are privately operated scheduled buses that provide service between SFO and Bay Area cities outside of San Francisco. They depart from the Center Island transportation zones on the Arrivals/Baggage Claim Level of the International Terminal and Domestic Terminals 2 and 3.
- Limousines must be prearranged. However, at the airport, visitors can contact operators at free phones located at the Lodging, Transportation and Attraction Boards on the Arrivals/Baggage Claim Level.
- Transportation Network Companies (TNCs) provide prearranged transportation between SFO and passenger-specified locations, TNCs include Lyft and Uber. Passengers arrange service online, typically using a smartphone app. Drivers use their personal, non-commercial vehicles. TNCs pick up passengers on the roof of the central garage for the domestic terminals and the Departures/Ticketing level of the international terminal. Fares vary.

STAY CONNECTED: SFO offers one-click, ad-free, free Wi-Fi. Look for the #SFO_FREE_WIFI network, launch your browser and click "Accept the Terms" for two hours of free Internet access. Log in again if you need more time.

LOCAL DINING

It would take months or even years to sample all the amazing restaurants in San Francisco, but if you miss a particular local institution during your visit, you might be able to try it at the airport. Sample fresh local seafood or mini hot dogs at Gott's Roadside, enjoy a scoop of organic ice cream at Three Twins Ice Cream, order a fresh-brewed cup of java at Roasting Plant Coffee or find artisanal foods at the Napa Farms Market. The new Manufactory Food Hall in the International Terminal also offers a wide range of "only in San Francisco" dining experiences.

FINE ART

San Francisco International Airport is the first in the country to be accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. If you've got some time on your hands waiting for your flight to depart, check out some of the exhibits scattered throughout the airport. Photography, sculpture and other art exhibits are loaned to the SFO Museum from other museums and private collections, supplementing the collection of aviation-related materials found in the Aviation Museum and Library housed at the airport (flysfo.com/museum).

RELAXATION

Let's face it: travel can be stressful. At SFO, you'll find numerous ways to help take the edge off. From Recompose areas (located just after the security checkpoints) to spa services to yoga rooms to interactive displays like the Flight Deck, there are many ways to find a moment of calm and relax. Check out more options at flysfo.com/shop-dine-relax.

BART SUSTAINABLE CONVENTION TRAVEL PROGRAM

BART'S SUSTAINABLE CONVENTION TRAVEL PROGRAM OFFERS A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY TO PROVIDE SUSTAINABLE TRANSPORTATION OPTIONS FOR SAN FRANCISCO CONVENTIONS AND MEETINGS. THIS PROGRAM ESTABLISHES A PLATFORM THAT FACILITATES THE USE OF BART'S ECO-FRIENDLY, CONVENIENT SFO TRANSFERS BY CONVENTION ATTENDEES AND STAFFS. PARTNERING WITH BART IN THIS PROGRAM PROVIDES KNOWLEDGABLE, LOCAL TRANSPORTATION SUPPORT FOR YOU AND YOUR ATTENDEES.

Making this a part of your conference program allows your members/attendees to purchase a BART ticket voucher in advance through your conference website. This is the only Sustainable Conference Travel program of its type. It makes it easier to get a ticket without using a ticket machine or waiting in line. Just buy it online, exchange the voucher for a ticket, enter the station and board the train for the 30-minute ride to San Francisco. No hassle, no traffic and no waiting.

HOW IT WORKS

BART staff develops “Sustainable Transfer” information specifically tailored to your needs that includes a private “branded” URL/link, to be prominently placed in the Transportation section of your convention website. Your “branded” URL/link connects to our SFO Voucher purchase page, where our BART SFO ticket voucher can be purchased. In addition, your URL/link allows us to track your conference’s “Sustainable Convention Travel” carbon savings. The program is easy, fast and convenient for you and your members. The BART trip from SFO to San Francisco also saves 10 pounds of carbon offsets per passenger trip.

WHAT YOU GET

The BART Sustainable Convention Travel program includes the following benefits:

- BART marketing support features custom copy that includes directions to conference hotels, a “BART Downtown San Francisco Hotels” map for your site, and custom copy formats to help you support and promote the use of BART transfers for the convention. The copy can be used to facilitate promotion through blast emails, Twitter or other social media.
- Custom private BART transfer booking page includes your conference logo and conference dates, plus one-to-three BART fare products designed to meet the transportation needs of your conference and its attendees.
- “BART Sustainable Travel Conference” designation includes: SFO Transfers Booking Site Carbon Savings; BART Ridership Carbon Savings Report (large conferences); BART Social Media Marketing support (optional)
- For more information, contact: Imara Yokely, iyokely@bart.gov

Barbary Coast Trail
 A 3.8 mile (6 km) self-guided walking tour that passes more than 40 historic landmarks from the Old Mint at Fifth and Mission streets to Aquatic Park. The route is marked by 170 bronze medallions and arrows embedded in the sidewalk. Each end of the trail is connected by the Powell-Hyde cable car line.

Note: Public transit is recommended to access Coit Tower because of heavy traffic. On weekends, parking near Coit Tower may be limited to residents only.

Bay Trail
 This shoreline walking and biking trail begins at Oracle Park and goes through Marina Green, the Presidio and across the Golden Gate Bridge to Sausalito and Tiburon.

Note: Ferry Service on Game Days

WHERE SAN FRANCISCO MEETS THE BAY to Play

Located on San Francisco's historic waterfront, PIER 39 is an unmatched San Francisco experience. Our 14 full-service restaurants offer group dining and stunning views of San Francisco Bay. We also offer a pre-paid meal voucher program for a flexible dining alternative.

The PIER's 20+ attractions include sightseeing cruises, the Aquarium of the Bay and The Flyer, a thrilling virtual reality flight that will take you zooming through the streets of San Francisco and soaring over the Bay. Our world-famous sea lions, over 60 specialty shops and world-class street entertainers round out the fun.
