

VIRGINIA

A woman with long dark hair is seen from behind, sitting in a swimming pool. Her hands are clasped behind her head, and she is looking towards a bright sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong lens flare effect across the sky. The background consists of a dense line of trees. The water in the pool is calm, reflecting the light from the sun. The overall mood is peaceful and romantic.

LUXURY TRAVEL EXPERIENCE

VIRGINIA IS FOR LOVERS®

VIRGINIA OFFERS A DISTINCT TYPE OF LUXURY

linking five-star resorts, spas and golf courses with beautiful, scenic byways. A Virginia luxury vacation gives you time to sip and to savor fine wines and award-winning cuisine. Come tour Virginia and realize the true meaning of luxury.

DAY ONE

Loudoun County is known as DC's Wine Country. Rolling green hills, where horses roam and little winding roads take you far away from the day's troubles. Salamander Resort and Spa sits surrounded by beautiful countryside, wrapped in serenity. Take a tour of the numerous local wineries, serving award-winning vintages. Visit the spa for a soothing massage followed by a soak in the elegant infinity-edged pool. Tempt your taste buds with a culinary trip through the Virginia Piedmont with the chef's curated tasting menu. Then end your night relaxing by the outdoor firepits as fireflies dance through the air.

DAY TWO

Start your day with yoga on horseback, or a brisk morning ride with Salamander's equestrian program. Move on to a cooking class in the special demonstration kitchen or grab your clubs and enjoy exclusive golf privileges at nearby Creighton Farms. Take a wine and painting class or with nature as your classroom, experience the thrill of partnering with a raptor in an Ultimate Falconry Experience. Stroll down the shaded streets of Middleburg and shop in the exclusive boutiques, then dine at a historic inn favored by Jackie Kennedy.

DAY THREE

Depart for Charlottesville and the historic Boar's Head Inn. Take the scenic route and stop for lunch at The Inn at Little Washington to enjoy Patrick O'Connell's inspired, Michelin award-winning cuisine, described by critics as 'so good it makes you cry.' Once you've settled in at Boar's Head, renew your body and soul with a healing plant treatment at the Inn's luxurious spa; explore their extensive network of nature trails; or enjoy the state-of-the-art racquet and fitness club. Finish your evening at the renowned Old Mill Room restaurant, built from the recovered timbers of an 1834 grist mill.

Spend your morning on Birdwood Golf Course, Audubon-certified and the official home course of the University of Virginia. Or let the concierge help you arrange an off-site hot-air balloon ride; fly-fishing adventure; winery tour and tasting; or historical site tour. Jefferson's Virginia offers personalized tours of Thomas Jefferson's Monticello, James Madison's Montpelier or James Monroe's Highland, providing guests with unique insights into the past president's lives. Find yourself in Downtown Charlottesville as the day winds down, where you can shop for local art and dine on regionally inspired cuisine paired perfectly with Virginia wine.

DAY FOUR

DAY FIVE

On to Richmond where The Jefferson Hotel waits to welcome you. Authentically opulent and eternally relevant, The Jefferson has provided guests with an extraordinary travel experience for more than a century. Take a trip downtown to the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts for a personally curated tour of their remarkable collection of more than 35,000 works of art, including their renowned collection of Fabergé. Savor the moment with The Jefferson's Southern Afternoon Tea, under the magnificent Tiffany stained glass of their Palm Court lobby. Visit the tasting room at Reservoir Distillery and sip some of their award-winning aged bourbon. Discover the unique local boutiques along Cary Street. The culinary delights of Lemaire await you back at The Jefferson before you retire for the night.

DAY SIX

Last stop, Williamsburg, one of the nation's top golf destinations, boasting more than a dozen courses designed by some of the most notable architects. Stay at the Kingsmill Resort, where luxurious riverfront accommodations await along with exclusive golf privileges, a sumptuous spa, and tantalizing dining options. For more than three decades, the resort's River Course has hosted the world's best players on both PGA and LPGA tours. Or experience the elegance and sophistication of the historic Williamsburg Inn and gain access to the Golden Horseshoe Golf Club to play five-star, club-quality courses without membership in an exclusive, colonial setting.
